Department of Arkansas President

2026-2027 Department President

Jana Rowland

"Anchored in Service, Guided by Light."

Jana Rowland proudly serves as the 2026-2027 Department President of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Arkansas.

Inspired by a deep commitment to service, Jana's vision centers on strengthening communication, fostering teamwork, encouraging leadership development, and building meaningful connections throughout the Department. Through collaboration and member engagement, she hopes to support a strong and vibrant Auxiliary dedicated to service veterans, military service members, and their families.

Under her administration, Jana encourages every member to become a guiding light within their Unit and community, demonstrating the values and mission of the American Legion Auxiliary through service and compassion.
